Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.

2 Corinthians 5:17

Daily Prayers Dissolve Your Cares

Let us live each day in the most loving ways, the God-conscious way. Let us serve all who are in need, regardless of race, color or creed. May your year be filled with peace, prosperity and love? May God's blessings shower upon you and bestow upon each of you a bright, healthy and peaceful new year.

Thought for the Month
Every moment is a fresh beginning.

The best is yet to come!

Remember our Shut-ins
and the bereaved with prayers, cards, and telephone calls.

~I Have A Dream~
January 15, 1929 - April 4, 1968

God's love for his children is never-ending. His love is steadfast and because of this we should be thankful. He brings good to our lives. Our hearts should overflow with gratitude.

Happy Birthday

New Year's Resolution???

Many are made, but few are kept. Why?

The New Year is a time of renewal and personal improvement. So why we typically give up (or even forget our resolutions by February)? Often we set unrealistic goals, or too many; we lose focus and get distracted by other events; we don't enlist others to help maintain accountability and provide support, and we don't reward ourselves. Sound Familiar?

A recent poll indicated only 50% plans to set New Year's resolutions.

Have you set goals (resolutions) for 2013, or do you plan to? If so, here are some tips:

*Aim low and be realistic (what are you capable of doing based on past experience). Instead of a goal that you will lose 30 pounds by April, target a goal that is more attainable, like losing 10 or 15 pounds.

*Don't overload yourself. If you make a list of 5-6 goals, go back to your list and determine which one goal would have the most positive impact on your life (and is also realistic). You can keep your list and select another goal when one is achieved.

*It's not just about hope. Make a plan with specific goals, actions you will take, and timetables.

*Enlist a coworker, friend, or family member to keep you focused. Have weekly conversations about your progress and result.

*Reward yourself. If you make your goal, treat yourself to a special dinner, weekend vacation or purchase something special.

Below are New Year's resolutions ideas.

Possible New Year's Resolutions

1. Spend more time with family.
2. Improve fitness through regular exercise.
3. Lose weight.
4. Quit smoking.
5. Quit drinking.
6. Get out of debt.
7. Enjoy life more.
8. Help others.
9. Learn something new.
10. Get organized.

Some Go To Church To...

Some go to church to take a walk,
Some go there to laugh and talk.
Some go to church for observation,
But some go there for speculation.
Some go there to meet a lover.
And some go there a fault to cover.
Some go there to meet a friend,
And some go there their time to spend.
Some go there to sing a sonnet.
But some go there to show their bonnet.
Some go to church oppressed with grief.
Some go there to find relief.
Some go to hear a grand oration,
Some go to glorify the nation.
Some go to hear about the war.
Some go to show how good they are.
Some go repentant and repenting,
But some go hardened, unrelenting.
Some go to praise, to pray and weep.
But some go there to lounge and sleep.
Some go to better their condition,
Some go to gain a good commission.
While some go there to doze and nod.
There's many go to worship God.

Little Johnny's Corner

Little Johnny in the Hospital

At the hospital nurse's station, a phone call came in to ask about the condition of Little Johnny in room 302. Checking the records. The nurse replied, he is doing well. His vital signs are good, his blood work came back normal, and his doctor has scheduled him to be released tomorrow.

The nurse then asked, is this his father calling? The caller answered, No, this is Little Johnny in room 302. The doctor doesn't tell me anything.
